3. The sale will be subject to confirmation by the Deputy Commissioner.

4. Parties intending to bid must attend either in person or by duly accredited agents.

5. The successful bidder shall, at the close of the sale, deposit in cash a sum equal to one-fourth of the total rental including local cess, at one anna in the rupee. Should he fail to do so, the exclusive privilege will at once be resold.

6. Resale effected under the above para will be at the risk of the defaulting bidder, who will have no claim to any profit accruing at the resale. In the event of loss, the deficiency between the amount of his bid at the original sale and the amount payable by the successful bidder at the resale will be recovered from him as a revenue demand.

7. The successful bidder shall pay, within one month from the date of sale, three-fourths of the total rental. On failure to pay the said sum on the due date, the lessee shall forfeit the amount already paid by him, also his claims to work out the contract during the unexpired portion of it, and any balance due will be recovered from him as a revenue demand.

8. The purchaser shall, within three days from the date on which confirmation of the sale is communicated to him, execute and sign an agreement on proper stamp paper, binding himself to observe the conditions published in para 9.

9. The successful bidder is required to conform to the following conditions:—

(1) Not to cut plants under one year old.

(2) The barked wood to be the property of the lessee.

(3) To keep accounts showing the quantity of bark removed in accordance with the lease, and to permit inspection of such accounts by the Amildar or by any officer deputed by the Deputy Commissioner for the purpose.

(4) To obtain passes for consignments of bark in such manner as may be laid down by the Deputy Commissioner.

(5) To remove out of the limits of the taluks leased out to him, all bark cut, collected or stored, before the end of June 1911.

(6) In the event of breach of any of the above conditions, the lease is liable to be cancelled and all the unexported bark to be confiscated.

(7) Tangadi shrubs shall not be cut for the sake of leaves, manure or for firewood or any other purpose except the bark.
